Come participate in a workshop to interpret and commemorate the "Mule Train", Marks' contribution to the Poor People's Campaign of 1968. The workshop, sponsored by the National Endowment for the Arts and organized by Mississippi State University's Carl Small Town Center and Department of History will feature interactive centers and exhibits on the Mule Train and Marks. The goal of the workshop is for you to tell the MSU team what you want to see happen in Marks to mark the Mule Train.
